Bant B accommodation and Coffee Shop overlooking Lulworth Cove

Bishops Cottage & Coffee Shop occupies a uniquely beautiful location in Lulworth being the nearest house and accommodation to the beach.

The original house was built by the son of the poet Wordsworth, the then Bishop of Salisbury. It offers a limited number of rooms on a Bed and Breakfast only basis. Situated right on the South West Coastal Path in the Devon & Dorset World Heritage Jurassic Coastline giving wonderful access to visitors.

Bishops Cottage & Coffee Shop is equipped with wireless internet connection in the bar, the terrace and the two main rooms in the building.

Guests are also able to use all the facilities of the Beach House, which is next door.
